Have you ever wondered why some sales people just seem to do it so easily, while you struggle to just get a listing? NOW you can get it right from the very start with my sure-fire power selling secrets and proven methods. Over the course of this book you will discover, perhaps for the very first time, what other successful salespeople and trainers are unwilling to disclose (probably because they don't want you to take their business). I have tried, tested and perfected these sales techniques for close to 30 years so if followed, your success is a certainty. This book is for you, so that you can get it right in your very first month of selling. By the time you have been in the industry for a year you will have everything down to a perfect art where other people are assisting you (without them even knowing it) and your clients have become your income stream for life so you'll never have to look under rocks for listings again - ever - and you can win your 100 awards - just as I have. So, draw a line under the past - this is how we do it now.
