Liz's husband, who was a special agent for the FBI, was killed by a bank robber. She decides to meet her childhood friend, Carlee, in China for a change of direction in her life. When she arrives in Beijing, her carry-on is missing. A British agent returns her bag, but all of her bags are searched. What they find in her bags causes them to suspect her in a case that the agent and the Chinese government are investigating. Will Liz be sent to prison? Will she be deported? Or will she find peace, happiness and love?
