Rhode Island Stained Glass : An Historical Guide Paul F. Norton

— from the introduction: Rhode Island is truly a museum of stained glass windows. Many of its churches are galleries displaying in their walls creations of great beauty that serve also as symbols of religious faith. It is too large a collection of religious art and artistic talent to remain unrecognized.

Paul Norton has a thoroughly documented guide to the stained glass windows of Rhode Island. His exhaustive research provides a register of stained glass studios and their designers, in addition to a town by town description of most of Rhode Island's churches and their glorious windows.
