Selling Your Soul to the Dissertation Process is a unique book that sheds much needed light on the arduous process of completing a dissertation. As an aspiring Ph.D. graduate, you may have been led to believe that writing it is the most difficult part. To the contrary, it is getting your work past the dreaded committee that is the true feat. Though the road may seem long and bleak, my purpose for this book is to offer inspiration through my story and insights as well as shared experiences of current and former doctoral candidates. With a lot of hard work, humility, and dedication, you too, can survive the dissertation process.
