The Architectural Competition: Research Inquiries and Experiences Magnus Rönn, Reza Kazemian, Jonas E. Andersson (Eds.)

The Architectural Competition: Research Inquiries and Experiences gathers 26 papers presented October 2008 at a conference on architectural competitions organised by KTH School of Architecture and the Built Environment, Royal Institute of Technology in Stockholm. The conference demonstrated that research on architectural competitions can offer a multifaceted field of study of significant importance to university based researchers, practicing architects and urban planners alike.
