Shorty's Matilda Rose Marie Goble

Land hunger, Fairy, and a promise to the deceased Pa stand in the way of Matilda Palmer's marriage to Shorty, also known as Gregory O'Neil. He loves her desperately and proposes almost with every breath, but problems arise. Matilda desires a wedding dress so it will be a real wedding. A blizzard across the Colorado prairie nearly kills her. Another aspiring groom shoots Shorty in the leg. And, the O'Neils crave her property for the water and mineral rights, the ideal place for a depot, and access for the laying of railroad tracks. Then a tornado destroys the O'Neil mansion, and Matilda runs to her former home in Indiana near Lake Michigan. Can Shorty ever convince her that he loves her and doesn't want her land? Will Matilda accept his hand in marriage?
