A Sense of the Cosmos - the Encounter of Modern Science and Ancient Truth Jacob Needleman

"Western science has operated for centuries on the assumption that we can understand the universe without understanding ourselves. We are just now seeking to make the necessary connection between the general laws of nature and those of our own (inner) nature. But the job won't be done with "massive injections of the new consciousness"; we cannot democratize the sacred by cheapening its demands." -- from back cover
