Alien Intervention: The Spiritual Mission of Ufos Paul Christopher

Paul Christopher began his personal investigation and research into the UFO phenomenon in 1972. Born and raised in northeast New Jersey, he periodically witnessed an assortment of unusual nocturnal lights. One particular instance was at the Wanaque Reservoir, a hotbed for UFO activity during 1966 and 1967, approximately 40 miles from his home. One week after observing a bright red and green spinning object above the water, he contacted the late J. Allen Hynek, founder of the Center for UFO Studies. They began exchanging pertinent information via letters.

Since that time, Paul has continued his diligence in the field, and strives to keep abreast of every UFO related circumstance. This work is a reflection of his long-standing passion for the subject and 25 years of extensive research.
