Sasha was only 15 when disaster struck.

At a rave in Los Angeles she took the popular drug, Ecstasy. After a violent reaction, an ambulance raced her to the hospital. On the way, she experienced seizures, multiple organ failure, and slipped into a coma.

Eventually, Sasha was removed from life support and died. Sasha's grieving mom recalls,

"I was supposed to be planning her Sweet Sixteen party. Now I have to plan her funeral."

Tragically, Sasha's death was not an accident. It was well planned by a powerful unseen enemy who has perfected a step-by-step plan to ruin teenage lives.

He has used it on many other teenagers. Now he may be after yours. His only fear is that you will discover his plan and help your teen escape his deadly grip.

For over six years, Rick Jones helped run a Christian home for troubled teenagers. While there, he saw many teenage lives miraculously transformed. His unique position and first-hand experience allowed him to discover that the devil is using the same basic step-by-step plan to destroy all young people.

That plan is exposed in this eye-opening book that talks straight to teens in a way they can't resist. No fluff, each page tackles gritty problems teenagers face every day:

- Drug abuse
- Alcohol abuse
- Sex
- STDs
- Suicide
- Peer pressure
- Satanism
- Rebellion
- Occultic computer games, and so much more.

Teenagers who appear to be doing great need this book. Those being tempted by drugs or other teen-related issues need it even more. With over 100,000 copies in print, many teens have been rescued after reading this short book.

Revised in 2016 so it's up to date.
