Joachim Matschoss is a playwright and poet born in Germany, now living in Australia. In his work, poet and dramatist, Joachim Matschoss converges on minute details of the actual world as he experiences it, but he also explores deeper and darker regions on his many real and imaginary journeys. It's as if we have to play catch-up to stay in touch with this prolific, warm and playful voice. his yelping suitcase bursts with dreams in stock and store who nicked the corkscrew? (TERRY McDONAGH) The structured form of the haiku in this new collection allowed Matschoss to create poignant snapshots of his journeys and experiences. (PAUL MURREY) Poems and haiku rooted in ordinary life are at the heart of this new collection but there are also weird and amusing imaginings and observations that extensive travel seems to prompt. (FRANCINE McGLYNN)
