Excerpt from The Owner's House Book: Devoted to the Subject of Artistic Decoration and Color Harmony in House Painting

This book is a book for the folks at home.

In it there is a story good to read, a story that will make the home a home of good taste as well as the home of good humor and good character.

We believe the book is needed; it is devoted to the subject of artistic home decoration, and our best evidence of its popularity is the thousands of inquiries we are receiving from the people who ask for it.

Every single day that dawns adds one more credit to the sum of American good taste; sees some new beauty wrought to make the home ideal.

Home decoration and home improvement have long since ceased to be fads and fancies. They are real; intense; vivid realities.

Even our common schools and high schools all are teaching and striving in their various ways to this great end.
