Mia Evans and Karrine Ray are best friends. They have been through everything together since Jr. High School, and both have grown into womanhood beautifully. Each is pretty successful in her own professional life. Mia is one of the top Executives at Crane Talent Agency and Karrine is a successful Publicist. However, no matter how sweet the surface, their personal lives have seen better days. Although Mia Evans grew up in the church in Macon, Georgia she is no saint and no stranger to her gentleman callers. Formerly jilted at the altar, Mia searches for love in all of the wrong places. Consciously aware, Mia often states how much she wants to fall in love and longs for a solid relationship. "I want a relationship, I want love, I want to be the one he can't live without. But until I find that, I may as well submit myself to the ones who pretend." Two years after her failed marriage attempt to Donovan Blazer, due to the evidence of his infidelity, Mia begins to comfort herself with men and her vibrator "Baby". Her nymphomania provokes a willingness to attend counseling offered by her company. It is through her Therapist, her quick drawn grandmother, Lillian, her best friend, Karrine and a series of unforeseen events that are a direct reflection of the men in her life that Mia realizes while she has been waiting for love to begin, she's forgotten to love herself. Mia and Karrine are one in the same when it comes to relationships with men but nothing could prepare Mia for the ultimate betrayals from those close to her including Karrine and the loss of her greatest inspiration. The return of her ex-fiancé Donovan only further complicates things. A familiar face and yet foreign exchange help her get her life back on track. But has she really learned her lesson? Do Mia and Karrine have what it takes to repair the ties that bind? Only time will tell.
