A Soldier Of Chance Ph.D. Nathan Rosenfeld

A heroic personal account of a man's will to survive the Holocaust speaks to a timeless struggle: finding one's identity amidst crisis. During a volatile time of hatred and war, Alex Rosenfeld disguises his identity as a Polish Jew and creates a new life as a French non-Jew. In so doing, Alex successfully averts concentration camps and death. Instead, he works diligently alongside Germans in factories before escaping to join the French Resistance. Nathan Rosenfeld's account is supported throughout by historical documentation, blending history with personal experiences and revealing true aspects of life. Through its combination of life experience and history, this book addresses the universal need for greater understanding and awareness of diversity, democracy, and peace."
