Nervous about your upcoming certification exam? Blackwell's Family Medicine Certification Review will help you feel confident and prepared.

Written by family physicians, this book provides a comprehensive review of topics likely to be covered on the American Board of Family Practice Certification Exam. Questions mimic the style, format, and content level of the exam, and clinical set problems examine the common problems any family practice physician may encounter on a daily basis.

This book is also a valuable resource for residents preparing for USMLE step 3 and physician assistants and nurse practitioners preparing for licensure exams.
