Most people believe they lack the capital required for serious wealth-building, unwittingly tying up money in equity they could be investing elsewhere for greater return. "Untapped Riches" offers 40 wealth-building and wealth-protection strategies, flying in the face of conventional wisdom to argue that there is both good and bad debt - and that the former is essential to generating cash flow and building significant wealth. This valuable, empowering book shows how anyone can get the cash they need, and use it to make a radical difference in their financial health.
