Merry Christmas, Mr. Baxter Edward Streeter

Dust jacket notes: "All that is inevitable, enjoyable, maddening and amusing about Christmas provides a perfect background for the adventures of this new Streeter "hero" - a grandfather who has not yet achieved the age of discretion and gives little promise of ever doing so. George Barton Baxter - who is more of a sentimentalist than he thinks - decides early in the fall that Christmas this year must be approached sensibly and with careful planning. But he reckons without Susan, his wife, or his children and grandchildren and in defiance of the irresistible machinery of what has become one of our most popular national industries." By the author of Father of the Bride and Mr. Hobbs' Vacation.
