They Started With One. What began as a week alone with their grandchild has grown into a significant and memorable tradition-one that will serve to pass on their legacy to their family's next generation-a week full of fun, crafts, adventures and enrichment known as Camp Heritage. Drawing from life and faith, they use camp to infuse themselves into their grandchildren-to give them a heritage of memories-instilling values, traditions and history. This book is a hands-on manual to help grandparents develop and initiate special time with their grandchildren. You have a significant legacy, don't miss the opportunity to pass it on.
