Magical Herbalism: The Secret Craft of the Wise (Llewellyn's Practical Magick Series) Scott Cunningham

Magick, the art of causing changes by means commonly supposed to be supernatural but which are truly only powers beyond the normal range of perception, finds its source within the operator and the natural objects of the world. Nowhere is this more the case than with magickal herbalism, which uses plants prized for the special range of energies they possess, and unites these with the powers of humanity to produce and direct change in accordance with human will and desire. The late Scott Cunningham was a master of magickal herbalism, and in this book he shares his secrets of the trade in teaching the correct methods of producing herbs, and compounding them in incenses, oils, sachets, amulets, simples and infusions, together with the accompanying rituals and spells to produce beneficent gifts for every good and true purpose.
