Marcus and His wives: An Erotic Novel Kathryn M. Burke

Marcus Washington is an African American who grew up in poverty but excelled at football both in college and in the NFL. He then went on to be an actor for several years and then an acclaimed writer of crime novels. Along the way, he established intimate relationships with three important women in his life: Jane, his college sweetheart, from whom he was estranged for many years; Kate, a bisexual professor; and Jenny, a fresh-faced graduate student who met Marcus when he visited her college. How does Marcus manage to keep these three women satisfied? Find out in this novel full of sex, love, and romance!
