Have you ever thought it would be fun to drive a horse and buggy into town for a peaceful getaway? How about driving in a parade with your kids or grandkids? Or, how about taking a horse-drawn sleigh ride in the snow with your loved ones? You can do all of this and more...and this book can show you how! Driving horses is a great family sport. And, best of all, it's easy, fun, and safe. Everyone Can Drive a Horse and Buggy; it's true! "Street driving" is a fun sport that includes the whole family, from kids to grandparents. And the safety risks in driving are less than riding, which is why so many people are becoming interested in it. This book is a step-by-step guide to learning:

- How to safely drive your driving horse, so you and your family can enjoy more time together in a peaceful, old-fashioned setting.
- What to consider when buying driving tack, so you don't waste your valuable time and money.
- How to fit the tack to your horse: safety and comfort are extremely important.
- How to effectively communicate with your horse - all the aids and commands you need – so you spend time having fun instead of butting heads with your horse (or worse yet, getting hurt because of miscommunication).
- How to choose the different types of driving vehicles to make your experiences unforgettable! I've also included loads of pictures and diagrams to make it easier on you to learn, AND specific exercises that will help you safely practice your driving skills.
