Identity (Volume 1) D Hunter

Deacon Levi Culpepper is disillusioned with Shady Oaks Baptist Church and therefore determined to start a new and improved house of worship. But the urgency of his goal is suddenly evaporated when he begins to suspect that his new best friend, a young African American carpenter, might be the second coming of the messiah. Others in the small town of Barksdale soon adopt the same suspicion when the mysterious newcomer is connected to a series of seemingly impossible occurrences, including one that astounds the scientific community.
