The Illustrated Collector's Guide to Alice Cooper Dale Sherman

One of the few rock performers to have become a household name, Alice Cooper is a living legend of theatrical rock. Bringing together biographical information, insights, stories, and detailed descriptions of his music, this fan guide to Alice Cooper covers his early bands in the 1960s, the Alice Cooper Group, and his solo career that continues to the present day. Each chapter is devoted to a specific time period in his career, and includes details about his personal life, recordings, tours, films, television appearances, and books within those years.
