This book asks the big questions. One of the biggest is this: What is Yahuah's will, and is it different depending on who you are, or what time period you live in? Should we walk as Yahusha did, or ignore that and just be as nice as we can? Can we believe Alahim is three, while Scripture contradicts it? Can we simply believe, and not practice anything we read in Scripture, and still claim to know Yahuah? Scripture tells us our teachers have misled us. It explains how our translations came to omit the Name of Yahuah, and how the hierarchy embraced paganism while shunning the Torah. It will bring the reader to a clearer understanding of how we are to live, and that the Commandments are a lighted path showing us what their purpose is. This book is part of the restoration of all things abandoned by our forefathers, and will help bring about a revolution of love and service. The Word and Name of Yahuah are front and center in this book. For those who want to explore more deeply into these two things, this is the book for you!
