What's Done In The Dark Angela L. Waderker

Janel had it all: a loving husband, a nice car, a beautiful home, and a very comfortable life as a stay at home wife and mother. That is until her husband was killed in a tragic accident. Through an unfortunate set of circumstances, she loses everything and is left to find a way to support herself and her son. Broken and disheartened, she turns to Tony for help.

Tony, her husband's best friend and a successful lawyer, is all too happy to help Janel put her legal and personal life back together. But he soon finds himself developing feelings for the widow that go beyond an attorney-client relationship and their many years of friendship. Sherri, Tony's jealous and possessive girlfriend, is none too happy about losing his attention to another woman, and she makes it her personal ambition to make certain she is the one and only woman in his life.

Will Janel look up from her struggle to get her life back on track to find love again? Or will Sherri accomplish her goal of becoming the one and only, ultimate woman in Tony's life, his wife?
