I wrote 'A Chic and Simple Christmas' because I wanted to find out the reason why I simultaneously looked forward to the holiday season so much, but at the same time dreaded it as a time of stress and anxiety. The Christmas of my dreams was a chic and simple affair full of joy, but the reality wasn't nearly as much fun. It was stressful! This book deconstructs just why this was, and details how to create a holiday season that will not only make you happier, but also more enjoyable for your loved ones. No matter the time of year you are reading 'A Chic and Simple Christmas', whether it is the second week in December or the middle of April, it is never too soon to starting thinking about your ideal Christmas holiday season. Work out what you would like to experience, and start creating and planning for that. If your holiday season experiences don't quite match the idyllic vision you have in your mind, I would love you to be inspired by 'A Chic and Simple Christmas' where I share how to create a holiday season you will love.
