Even people who think they have no talent for visual art can create eye-catching murals using the simple projection art techniques described in this book. Covering projection, tracing, painting techniques, and the use of paint pens, the book includes projects for nurseries, daycare centers, and children's and teenagers' rooms. Readers learn how to create a transportation mural, re-create a favorite map on a wall or floor, and transform a bedroom into a princess suite. Color photos and illustrations throughout are provided.
