Excerpt from The Art of House-Painting: Being a Clear and Comprehensive Record of the Observations and Experiences, During Many Years, of a Practical Worker in the Art, and Designed to Instruct and Assist in the Every-Day Work of Painters and Others

Not only the practical man will find the contents of this book valuable in its sensible statements of the way of working, but all who build houses, as well as those who live in them, will find many hints which they can use to their advantage.

To the business man a system is essential, to enable him to perform his work in a thorough manner, and the author has accordingly emphasized its importance. Having proved this in conducting his own work, he has here endeavored to show others how to do it.
