Understanding the Public Health Implications of Prisoner Reentry in California: State-of-the-State Report

Lois M. Davis, Malcolm V. Williams, Kathryn Pitkin Derose, Paul Steinberg, Nancy Nicosia

Examines the health care needs of newly released California prisoners; the communities most affected by reentry and the health care safety net of those communities; the critical roles that health care providers, other social services, and family members play in successful reentry; and the effects of reentry on the children and families of incarcerated individuals. Recommends how to improve access for this population in the current fiscal environment.
