Love Under Fire Sophia Jackie

In her new novel, Love Under Fire, Sophia Jackie returns to deliver an emotional and suspenseful drama about love, scorn and murder. Jeremy Delacroix's life was back on track. Or was it? An experimental procedure has allowed him to walk again after a rock climbing accident. Life isn't perfect, but it is better. After saying a final goodbye to an ex-lover, he wakes up in a hospital and is accused of her murder. Now his life is off the rails. Again. Someone is stalking him. Dead bodies are piling up around him and a woman he never expected to have a connection with is investigating him. Can he prove his innocence while chasing this new found love? Ayanna Dixon's life was falling apart. A vicious attack has left her scarred, angry and wrestling with her humanity. Nightmares about the attack plague her. Keeping her FBI job is a struggle. Asked to unofficially investigate the murder of a US Congressman's fiancé, she jumped at the chance to focus on anything but her own problems. Now she's investigating an old-college-crush for murder, and her previously one-sided feelings are suddenly reciprocated. Was Jeremy a murderer? Can she discover the truth while allowing their connection to deepen? Should she even try?
